LONG SESSION OF COUNCIL

The Subject of Street Crossings an Important One.

MANY BILLS WERE ACTED UPON

Warm Weather Had No Effect on the Borough Fathers and They Kept at Work as if There Was No Such Thing as To-Morrow.

Council convened in regular session on Monday evening with President Brockerhoff and Members Gerberick, Williams, Valentine, Shaffer, Brackbill and Kellar in attendance.

Clerk Isaac Mitchell read the minutes of the previous meeting, which were approved and adopted as read.

John Reesner appeared before the Council and asked that his bill of $7.75 be paid, for bridge work done last year.

A petition signed by a large number of property owners and business people was then read. It asked that a new crossing be put down across Allegheny street from Parish's drug store to Achenbach's bakery.

The Street Committee reported considerable work done on the extreme ends of East Logan and East Bishop streets. The crossing on Allegheny street from St. John's Episcopal church to Gov. P. H. Hastings' home is completed, as is also the one on the alley between the residences of J. D. Shugert and C. P. Hewes. The committee stated that the request for a crossing on Blanchard street, near the Brick School House, had been investigated and that it would be impossible to put one down. They, however, decided to put down a plank crossing on Bishop street very near to where the one on Blanchard street was wanted. The Committee reported favorably on the request for a crossing on Linn street from the residence of John P. Harris to that of J. H. Lingle. The members of the Committee, together with the Borough Engineer, investigated the matter of the request for a grade on South Potter street and regarding repairs to the alley near Dr. M. A. Kirk's property. Different repairs thought necessary were recommended. In regard to the asking for a grade on Reynolds avenue, the Committee reported the street in bad condition and recommended repairs with broken stone.

The Water Committee reported that the work of laying 60 feet of two-inch water pipe on East Logan street had been finished. The spring and reservoir have been cleaned and the work of laying the six-inch water pipe on Bishop street has been commenced. The Borough Assessor has completed his work and handed in his report. W. P. Zeller has refused to sign the water contract and has removed his motor. The pumps at the Water Works are running 14 hours per day.

The Fire and Police Committee reported that the new ball nozzles had been tested and found to be a success. The Logans, while out testing their nozzle Monday evening, had two sections of hose burst for them. It was blamed on the hose. The Burgess has as yet failed to affix his signature to the Tramp Ordinance although requested to at different times.

The Market Committee stated that the market would open up on Saturday, May 9th.

The Nuisance Committee reported that various nuisances complained of had been investigated and remedied.

It was moved and seconded that an order be drawn for the payment of John Reesner's bill.

The matter of a new crossing on Allegheny street, between Parish's and Achenbach's bakery, was referred to the Street Committtte with power to act.

No action was taken on the request for a crossing on Linn street, between the residences of John P. Harris and J. H. Lingle.

After taking up a few miscellaneous items, the Council moved that orders be drawn for the following bills, after which it adjourned:

Bucket Shops are Legal.

Chicago Ill., May 4.—Judge Horton yesterday decided that bucket shops are as legitimate as the board of trade, and quashed the 11 indictments against William Skakel and 10 others, charged with being proprietors of or employed in bucket shops.

"The board of trade does a wholesale business in wheat dealing," said Judge Horton, "and what are called bucket shops do a retail trade. There is absolutely no difference in their methods of operation, and the statute which makes the board of trade business legitmate does the same for the lesser dealers who are conducting the same kind of trade. While I believe personally that it is all nothing but gambling the law allows it, and the courts are powerless."

The remaining 240 cases against men who have been indicted for the same offense will be called up to-morrow and will be thrown out of court at the same time and in the same way. The grand jury yesterday afternoon wholly ignored Judge Horton's decision and issued 149 more indictments against proprietors of bucket shops.

To Meet Soon.

The first annual meeting of the Bible Institute of the Pennsylvania State Y. M. C. A. will be held at Shickalimmy, June 12-21. Among the speakers who will be present are Rev. Robert E. Speer, of New York, Secretary of the Presbyterian Board of Foreign Missions; Augustus Nash, of Lincoln, Nebraska; R. A. Torrey, of Moody's School, Chicago; Dr. Wilbur Chapman, Bethany church, Philadelphia, ex-State Secretary Y. M. C. A. C. E. Hurlburt, Philadelphia; J. H. McConkey, of the Pennsylvania Bible Institute at Philadelphia.

A delegation from the Bellefonte Y. M. C. A. is earnestly desired. This is a rare opportunity to attend something that is worth far more than your time and expense. It is to be hoped there will be a large number from this city accept this invitation. They will always regret it if they don't.

Children Set Fire to a House.

Philadelphia, May 5.—Maurice and Wilber Gleason two tots, aged 8 and 5 years, children of respectable parents, climbed through a rear window into a house at 5331 Hunter Avenue. The house was furnished but unoccupied, and the youthful marauders procured a candle and explored the premises in quest of such articles as might strike their infantile liking. In their efforts they managed to set fire to the house and were imprisoned in the third story by the flames overtaking them. The children jumped to a shed and escaped uninjured, but the house was damaged to the extent of $3,200. The children were arrested, but were allowed to be taken home by their mother, who will have them in court far a hearing in the morning.

"All Full Inside?"

"Can't speak for the other passengers, driver, but that last dumpling filled me up." Yes and 'twill "lay you out," if it was as doughy as some of them are, and then you'll need Dr. Pierces Pleasant Pellets to relieve your pain, and gently remove from the stomach and bowls all irritating matter. No drastic purges these but gently cathartic. more laxative than cathartic, yet though mild, doing thorough work; and easy to take, a specific in disease of the stomach, liver and bowels. In vials to preserve their virtues. Of all medicine dealers.

MET DEATH IN THE MINES

Henry Mosel's Life Crushed Out By Tons of Ore and Sand.

HIS HEAD WAS MASHED INTO JELLY

While Picking Ore in the Mines at Scotia on Tuesday, Henry Mosel Was Instantly Killed By a Cave-in—His Son's Narrow Escape.

Henry Mosel aged 60 years was crushed to death while working in the mines at Scotia about 4 o'clock Tuesday afternoon. Mosel was at work at the time and without a minute's warning he was buried under tons of sand and ore.

Henry Mosel and his son James went to work as usual on Tuesday morning picking lump oar in the Carnegie mines. They worked all morning and after dinner went back into the mines and resumed their work. They worked up until about 4 o'clock in the afternoon when James went out to get a car to load the ore on. He went out of the mine and there waited on his father. He waited for some time and then went into the mine to see what was keeping him. When he had gone a short distance down the grade he found his father buried beneath tons of ore, sand, ect. He set to work at once to get him out and succeeded after considerable difficulty. But he was too late as his father was already dead. His head was terribly crushed and many bones were broken. Death must have been instantaneous as the unfortunate man was already cold. He was in the mines altogether about 30 minutes after his son left. How long he lay under the fall of oar is unknown as no noise could be heard on the outside. It is thought he was stooping over picking up ore when the accident happened. It came so suddenly that the poor man didn't even have a chance to move. His position when found indicated that the ore struck him as he was kneeling over and flattened him to the floor of the mine.

It was very fortunate that it didn't result in two deaths as the son would have certainly met the same fate his father had he not gone out for the car when he did. It was not thought the roofing was in a dangerous condition as no signs of being so were visible.

Four sons are left to mourn the sad and untimely death of their father. Two of them were working in the same mines in which he was killed. His wife died some years ago.

Elected Officers.

Chambersburg, Pa., May 5.—The session of the fiftieth annual council of the order United American Mechanics of Pennsylvania were formally opened this morning. The election resulted as follows: State councillor. John M. Hornbaker, of Wayne county: vice councillor, George H. Lavely, of Johnnstown; secretary, Walter Graham, of Philadelphia; treasurer, Charles H. Kurtz. To-morrow an excursion will be made to Gettysburg.

Counterfeits.

For some time past a large amount of counterfeit coins in the shape of dollars and half dollars have been circulating in Altoona, and it is suspected that there is a den of counterfeiters in the city or neighborhood. Government detectives are at work on the case. Detective McSweeny, of Scranton who ran down a gang of them in Altoona several years ago, is also at work.

RUMORED REMOVAL.

Beech Creek Railroad Shops May Go to Clearfield.

A gentleman of this city, who came from Clearfield last evening, states that there is a movement on foot in that place looking to the removal of the Beech Creek shops from Jersey Shore to that town. It is known that the Beech Creek company contemplate enlarging the shops to double their present capacity, and the Clearfield people, learning of this improvement, have made an offer that if the company remove the works to their town, that they will bear the expense of removal and in addition will furnish the ground for the same.

In view of the fact that the railroad would get a long haul to the north and east, it is believed that the removal to Clearfield would be advantageous.

This movement on the part of Clearfield will not be pleasant news to Mill Hall residents, as it is known that they have been making overtures to the company for the shops. It is altogether likely the town making the best offer will get the desired industry.—Lock Haven Democrat.

Bishop McNamara Attacked.

Consternation was caused among the guests and attaches at the Fallon house Monday night, when Bishop McNamara and his wife were stoned and egged. The Bishop asserts that since he has been delivering his talk in this city he has been threatened with bodily harm. At the academy of music last evening he gave notice to the audience of the threats he had received. After the lecture he and his wife came down Main street went out Grove, and then up Water street to the hotel. When a short distance above Grove street a volley of stones was thrown at them, and his wife. While going up the steps into the ladies entrance of the Fallon house, another volley came from men on the opposite side of the street, during which Mr. McNamara was struck and Mrs. McNamara's dress was soiled by the eggs. The couple finally succeeded in getting into the hotel. The young gentleman who accompanies the bishop afterwards went out into the street and an ugly fight possibly would have been the result had not an attache of the hotel and Mr. McNamara induced him to come into the house. The bishop says that there were a number of men among the attacking party. Their names could not be learned.—Lock Haven Democrat.

Sad and Fatal Accident.

Pottsville, May 4.—While Ranslo Boone and his wife were driving from Port Carbon to their home in St. Clair, this evening, their horse took fright at a passing electric car near Mill Creek and went over the bank. Mr. Boone was instantly killed and his wife sustained serious if not fatal injuries. Mr. Boone was one of the best known men in this county. He was 67 years old and conducted a grocery and dry goods store at St. Clair for many years. At midnight Mrs. Boone's condition was critical.

Street Car Men Strike.

Milwaukee Wis., May 4.—A strike of street railway employes for an advance in wages and recognition of the union began this morning, tying up every line in the city. Over 1,200 men are out including conductors, motormen. electric workers and barn men. There are not more than nine cars running on all the lines in the city. The company is determined to run its cars and the police are prepared for trouble.

FIFTH ANNUAL CONVENTION

Altoona District of the Epworth League Held in This City.

MANY DELEGATES IN ATTENDANCE

Editor W. T. Bair of the Philipsburg "Journal" is President of the Convention—The Session One of the Largest Ever Held.

The fifth annual convention of the Altoona District—comprising the counties of Blair, Clearfield and Centre—of the Epworth League, convened at 1.30 o'clock this afternoon at the Methodist church, on the corner of Spring and Howard streets. The session will continue today and to-morrow, by which time a very interesting and instructive program will have been rendered.

Delegates commenced to arrive early this morning and by the time the last morning train had arrived there were fully 175 representatives in town. A reception committee met them at every train and one and all were directed to the Methodist church. Here again they were taken in charge by committees and guides and everything possible was done to make them feel perfectly at home. The balance of the morning was devoted to enrolling the delegates and assigning them places to stay during the two days' session.

The scene in the church room was an animated one. It was all bustle and excitement, but everything moved along like clock work so well prepared were the arrangements. The final preparations for the afternoon were made and then the informal meeting adjourned.

The convention was called to order promptly at 1.30 o'clock. Hymn no 144 "Go Forth Ye Heralds, in My name!" was then sung after which Rev. Hartsock delivered a brief prayer. Prof. G. W. Weaver offered up a prayer after which all united in singing "Leaning on the Everlasting Arms."

Next came brief voluntory prayers. after which Miss Lizzie Smith delivered the address of welcome.

Rev. Rue then spoke on the Epworth League. His address was very interesting and instructive and was listened to with the closest of attention. He made reference to the organization of the society, what it had to contend with at the start, its trials and difficulties and finally its grand triumph and the enviable position it now commands. He told what a great benefit it was to the Metoodist church and how it helped to advance its work in the different branches, how it had a tendency to make many new members among the young people and give new life to the congregation. Rev. Rue in speaking of what has been accomplished said that there are now 16,300 Epworth Leagues, 4,507 Junior Leagues, 1,100,000 Epworth Leaguers, that in the past seven years the Epworth Herald had grown to a weekly circulation of 100,000, and that 20,000 Bible Readings are distributed in a year comprising 6,000 courses in readings, 36,000 well bound volumes or 400,000 pages of literature. Rev. Rue also extended to the visitors a hearty and cordial welcome.

The exercises of the afternoon were as follows:

1.30, Look Up Service, Rev. Illingsworth; 1.45 Address of Welcome, Rev. J. W. Rue ann Miss Lizzie Smith; 2.00, Responses, Rev. W. H. Wharton and H. C. Lorenz; 2.15, Singing; 2.20, Appointment of Committees 2.25 "How can we take the best things to the home chapters?" Joseph McKerlhan; 2.36, "How to make a small chapter a success!" Miss M. C. Blackburn; 2.55, Discussion; 3.10, Solo, Miss Nora Snyder; 3.15, Paper—"The Epworth Guards," T. P. Gheer; 3.30, "Greatest obstacles and greatest encouragements in League work," Miss Minnie Williamson; 3.40, Discussion; 3.50, Singing; 3.55, There Great Needs—A symposium, John P. McCurdy, Miss Mary Nelson and W. C. Shuff; 4.10, Free Parliament; 4.20, Singing; 4.26 "Preparation for Service," Miss Mary Hunter.

The officers of the convention are as follows:

President, W. T. Bair, Philipsburg; First Vice President, S. C. Watts, Lumber City; Second Vice President, Miss Mary E. Bracken, Hollidaysburg; Third Vice President, G. W. Weaver, Curwensville; Fourth Vice President, D. W. McCurdy, Clearfield; Corresponding Secretary, Miss Lizzie Akers. Bellwood; Recording Secretary, W. M. May, Altoona; Treasurer, J. H. Reiley, Tyrone; Executive Committee, Rev. D. S. Monroe, Altoona, Rev. J. W. Rue, Bellefonte, W. L. Woodcock, Esq., Altoona, and W. T. Bair, Philipsburg.

Penns Valley.

J. C. Condo of Penn Hall, and by the way, Democratic chairman of east precinct Gregg township, made a hasty trip to Bellefonte last Saturday. Politics of course.

J. C. Glover of State College was down the Valley last week. He took a great interest in the water pipe line from Shingletown to State College, and no doubt it was through his untiring zeal and energy that it was finally accomplished. There is a dash and vim about Mr. G. that people admire and which has made him quite popular in Penns Valley. He formerly resided in Union Co Pa.

John Smith of Smith Bros. the enterprising furniture dealers of Spring Mills, and Democratic chairman of West precinct Gregg township, attended the general "summer" of the county chairman to meet in Bellefonte last week. Who are slated for our county officials John? Who are the nominees?

On Wednesday last I was in Millheim, and chanced to be where "merchant most do congregate" and politicians too, for that matter, for I overheard in fact there was no wispering about it, but I heard several Democratic leaders discussing the ifs and buts of party success. Speaking of candidates one gentleman remarked. Now there is Long of Gregg township, he was like a thunderbolt, one minute here and the next miles away, in fact he was almost ubiquitious, and added let me tell you as a candidate for treasurer he would be a very dangerous antagonist, not very safe to fool with nor underrate, of course not, one replied but just so he dosen't receive the nomination. thats all I care about. No was the answer. Anybody but Charley Long. Then they commenced disgussing Free Silver and Sound Money, and of course Pattison for President. Are the "Unterrified" scared already?

The other day I noticed a car load of A No 1 shingles at Spring Mills R. R. Station. The town presents quite a lively appearance nearly every one is making some improvements, remodeling their houses, painting etc. The residence of W. R. From, since it has been repainted presents a very inviting and attractive appearance.

Candidate for "publichonors" apparenrly inserted our Valley last week. I questioned very much if any went either down or up, at all events I have not been advised of any. True it was a trifle chilly and the weather threatening for a few days, and your wiseacre has some little regard for bodily comforts. And so wait for a spell of dry pleasant weather before venturing on the war path. All right we can wait.

The wheat fields along this Valley look very sick. Here and there one looks a trifle healthy, but they are few.

THE STRIKE A FAILURE.

Only 300 Men Responded to the Order to Strike—Offenders Severely Dealt With—The Lines All Running.

Philadelphia, April 30.—The attempt of the Amalgamated Association of Street Railway Employes to inaugurate a strike this morning upon the lines of the Union Traction company, was a complete failure. Only about 250 men responded to the strike order and only on one or two lines of the city in the early morning hours were the regular schedules not observed. By 9 a. m. every line was running as usual. The police, whose force had been augmented by 800 specials, were prepared for violence, but absolutely no disorder took place and only two arrests were made for interference with the company's property.

The members of the central committee of the association were completely discomfited by the failure of their strike order. They attributed it to a misunderstanding and think the men refused to go out because a notice stamped with the official seal of the association was not posted in each of the division headquarters. The committee seem completely at sea to-night and not one of them appears to know what course to pursue

President Mahon, of the association, is said to be in Milwaukee, where a strike is reported to be imminent, but even if he should come here it is not probable that his presence would aid the strikers' cause. The fizzle to-day will probably cause the death of the Amalgamated association in Philadelphia.

Severe justice was meted out in the criminal court to-day to several association men who assaulted non-union conductors last week. James Campbell was sentenced to two years in the penitentiary, and Wallace McGee and Joseph Dinsmore, who pleaded guilty to assault were sentenced to pay a fine of $500 each, to undergo an imprisonment in the penitentiary of three years, and to enter bail in the sum of $500 each to keep the peace for five years.

Borough Council under Arrest.

Williamsport, Pa., April 30.— William Salts, Asher Bennett, R. McCulloh, John T. Clark, and W. E. Sutzman, members of the Jersey Shore borough council, have all been arrested on a charge of attempting to defraud the borough of $1,000. The hearing is set for Saturday. The action is brought by the same parties who are interested in the alleged defamation of character suit against the Fall Brook Railway officials. The prosecutors promise some interesting developements.

—Hon. William A. Wallace died at New York this morning after an extended illness. His death will cause profound grief all over the country.

A PACKED HOUSE

"The Drummer Boy of Shiloh" Carrying Everything Before it.

The second night's production of "The Drummer Boy of Shiloh" was a grand success in every particular. When the curtain went up for the first act, almost every seat was occupied. It was an appreciative audience and the general opinion to-day is that the second night's performance surpased that of the first by great odds. Time and again were the people on the stage loudly applauded. The audience waxed warm at times and not a few tears were shed during the evening. Hugh S. Taylor as Sergant Rutledge was exceptionally fine and his work was so realistic that he was roundly kissed by the audience. The work of George R. Meek as "Mart Howard" and Alfred Brisbin on "Johnny Howard" was fine and better than the first night, if such a thing is possible. The entire company did well and carried off many honors. A handsome boquet of carnations and roses was presented to Alfred Brisbin by admiring friends during the second act.

Worked By a Gypsy.

Butler, Pa., April 30.—Mrs. McCune of McClain avenue, South Side, is out $312 for putting too much faith in a fortune teller.

The fortune teller was a gypsy, who told Mrs. McCune that her husband was afflicted with falling fits, which was a fact, and that the fortune teller could cure him for $5. The proposition was readily accepted, but later the gypsy said the plant in which she manufactured the medicine would not work and she required money to fix it up. The money was, of course, to be returned. Mrs. McCune was so anxious to have her husband cured that she readily turned over all the money she had, which was $312 all told, and both the gypsy fortune teller and the money are missing. The matter has been placed in the hands of a detective.

Death of "Bud" Doble.

Philadelphia, May 3.—William H. Doble, who, in his time, was the most famous reinsman of the world, died yesterday at his home, near the city line, in his 80th year. Mr. Doble was probably the oldest living driver of trotting horses and he was the first man to drive a trotter faster than 2.17. Mr. Doble has handled and trained trotting horses since 1830.

—A slight fire was started on the stage during the performance on Friday evening by an electric light wire. Fortunately it was detected and extinguished before any damage was done.

ROOM HARD TO GET

Gov. Hastings May Have to Camp Out at St. Louis.

Harrisburg, Pa., April, 30.—Private Secretary Beitler is still at St. Louis in search of quarters for Gov. and Mrs. Hastings during the national Republican convention. A message was received at the executive department this evening from Mr. Beitler stating that he had not yet secured rooms. The governor will remove his family to his home at Bellefonte before he starts for St. Louis.

Accident at Valentine's

An accident happened at Valentine's Furnace on Thursday evening about six o'clock which might have resulted in some serious injuries. As it was two cars were pretty badly damaged and considerable excitement was caused for the time being.

It seems that they were pushing the cinder trucks on the upper end of the railroad tracks when a coupling pin broke as they were making a switch to get on the new track. A loaded truck ran against another and the two went off the track. The loaded truck fell upon the empty one damageing it pretty badly. The cars dropped a distance of about eighteen feet. Fortunately no one was hurt by the cars. It took quite a time to get things cleared up again. It was the first time anything of the kind ever happened at these furnaces.

A Memorable Sunday.

Rev. H. A. Grant said in his sermon last night: "Washing is appointed and spoken of in the Scriptures to show us the necessity of spiritual washing. 'Then,' for instance, 'I will sprinkle clean water upon you and ye shall be clean.' In the use of the water symbol you reach baptism, and the word translated wash, is baptize, and means the symbolic use of water and cleansing efficacy, that it may teach that our souls may be washed and made clean. It is said, 'I will sprinkle clean water upon you,' and then, 'I will pour out my Spirit upon you.' Here is the double baptism of water and the Holy Ghost, and that is indicative of the thorough and practical power which God will employ to make us clean in His sight. I showed you the blood as a symbol, now I introduce the water baptism as pointing to the power of the Holy Ghost in renovating the soul from all sin. The Reverend spoke also of the fire symbol as a most expressive and powerful help to interpret the language of Divine revelation."

After the sermon the following persons were baptized by the mode of sprinkling: Rachael Thomas, Lizzie Steward, Martha Overton, Josephene Mahew, Lawrence Williams, and Misses Clara and Hattie Williams by the mode of immersion in the morning. Mrs. Mary Miller, Martha Overton, Lizzie Steward, Rachael Thomas, Clara Williams, Minnie Freeman, Sallie Green, Rosie Miller, Carrie Gross, Hattie Williams, Josephene Mahew, Lawrence Williams and James Miller were received into the church as full members. The pastor said he was glad that they had been loyal to God, to the church and to the community, and that they would have the respect of every intelligent person for proving their manhood and womanhood as standing up for the right. The recent revival at the church proved to be a success.

NARROWLY ESCAPED DEATH

Six Year Old Frank Kirk Run Over by an Engine at Valentine's Furnace and ONLY H'D HIS TROUSERS TORN

The Little Fellow Jumped in Front of an Engine and Was Knocked Down—He Escaped Without Even a Scratch.

Frank, the six-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. George Kirk of this place, met with a thrilling experience on Sunday afternoon which came within an ace of killing him instantly.

It seems that Frank and some other little boys were playing around the railroad tracks at Valentine's Furnace during the afternoon and it was about 4 o'clock when the accident happened. Frank was standing on a track which is on an elevation about five feet from the ground. Running paralell with it, but much lower, is another track. Frank was playing on the upper track when he happened to turn around and saw an engine and a cinder kettle truck on the lower track but a few feet away from him. The little fellow was so badly frightened that he thought the engine and kettle were on the upper track and in an instant had jumped down onto the lower one right in front of the engine. Engineer Albert Tate was horrified at the sight, but it was so sudden that he didn't have time to reverse as it was on a down grade. The engine struck the boy and knocked him down. Fortunately he fell lengthwise on the track with his feet towards the engine. A number of people happened to be standing nearby and they all shut their eyes as it seemed certain that the boy would be ground to pieces. The engine and kettle passed over him and when the spectators recovered their senses he was lying flat on the track. In a second everybody made a move to pick him up, but before they could do so Frank was on his feet safe and sound as ever. How he escaped is a mystery. He was not even scratched and the only marks of his awful experience were some badly greased up clothes. The engine and kettle extend so near to the tracks that the seat of the little fellow's trousers was torn completely out and the heel of his left shoe was ground to dust by one of the car wheels.

A Comedy of Errors.

The golden rays of the July sun were beating down mercilessly upon the dusty pavement of the little hamlet of M—but the oppressive heat was somewhat relieved by a balmy breath of air stirring the leaves of the old chestnut trees which lined the principal thoroughfare, fanning them with a deliciously cool breeze and enabling the portly host of the Inn of the Blue Lion to take his after dinner nap in comfort.

But he was fated to suffer an unlooked for interruption, for just as the big town bell struck the hour of 2 the letter carrier made his appearance, holding a letter in his out streached hand, which he delivered to mine host's wife, uttering the words "From America." Mother and daughter both shook their heads incredulously. Mine host rubbed his sleepy eyes. "Is it really from America?" he queried. "Who could have written to us from that far away country? Go, some of you, and find my glasses!"

The surprise was now general. It was in the days when everybody was talking about California. For two years previous to the occurrence here narrated people from all parts of Europe had emigrated to the gold mines in the far west, where—so ran the story—gold was actually laying around everywhere and to be had for the picking up.

At last the spectacles were found, and the old man read in a loud voice, while all present held their breath in suspense.

"Dear Cousins'—Well, I declare," he interrupted himself, "this letter is from Cousin Berner, who emigrated 30 years ago."

Cousin Berner was immensely wealthy. Like all emigrants, he had to work very hard at first and had learned the lesson which stern necessity teaches all newcomers in that country. He had been a street-sweeper, a bootblack, a lamplighter,—in fact, he had been compelled to do almost anything and everything to earn a scant livelihood. Finially he had been able to save a few dollars and started a small store. Fortune had favored him, and he had amassed a vast fortune, which he had intended to leave to his son. It was now his dearest wish to see this son happily married, and having accidently gathered from some Germans who had arrived in San Francisco that his cousin had a daughter he had decided to send his boy on a visit to M—,hoping the young people would like each other. His boy, Charles, was diligent and industrious, and he saw no reason why his (the writer's) plans should nor be carried out.

The old man cast radiant looks around him. "A marriage of the two young sters? Well I should think so! Could there be greater luck in store for our Marie? Just to think of it, my son-in-law an American! Won't the neighbors be jealous? But where is Marie? I do not see her?"

"I dare say she is busy in the garden," responded his wife hesitatingly.

"Call her at once!"

Marie, a beautiful vivacious girl, soon made her appearance. She slowly pursued the contents of the letter. "Well, girl, what do you think of this piece of good fortune?" the father questioned after she had finished. "Would you like your rich cousin from America for your husband?"

"Why not," she replied in thoughtful measured tones, "provided I like him."

* * * * *

Charles Berner of San Francisco and Henry Decker of Hamburg, two young men who had become acquainted the day before, upon leaving the Thames, stood on the deck of the Hamburg packet. The former was relating the object of his trip adding frankly that he would have much preferred remaining in California, having as yet no desire to marry, but had been urged by his father to bring home a European wife. "And here I am," he concluded, "en route for a little out of the way-place called M— to have a look at my prospective bride."

"This is a strange coincidence," said Decker I also have to go to M—shortly."

"To M— are you also looking for a wife?"

"No indeed," smilingly. "My father has an interest in some neighboring mines and business alone takes me there. Likely we may meet at the home of the future Mrs. B.?"

"Hardly as I intend remaining some weeks in Hamburg and Berlin. To tell the truth I am not very anxious to make my cousin's acquaintance.',

* * * * *

Charles Berner made the most of his stay in the beautiful Hanse town on the Elbe, and then preceeded to Berlin. One day, while promenading Unter den Linden he picked up a pocketbook lying on the sikewalk before him. It was made of tortoise shell, with silver filigree work, the mother of pearl fastenings, no doubt the property of some woman. Entering a cafe he examined his find. Besides some money it contained a note, which he opened. It was a letter signed "Clara," and addressed to dear Amalie, asking to excuse the delay in her reply on account of the change of residence of the writer's parents to 124 B street. first floor, and also telling the news that her father intended her to marry the son of his old friend, the merchant Decker of Hamburg, a charming young fellow, rejoicing in the sweet name of Henry.

Here was a poser for our young Californian, for no doubt this paragon and his acquaintance on board of the packet were one and the same Suddenly an idea struck him. He would return the pocketbook in person.

Getting into a dreschke, he soon found himself in the B. strasse. Arriving a 124 he read above the bell for the first floor the name L. Foster. He knew now the young woman's name and resolutely rang the bell. Stating the nature of his errand to the servant who admitted him, he soon found himself in the presence of the object of his visit, whose beauty and majestic bearing made such an impression upon him that he remained riveted to the spot, gaizing at her and forgetting the formality of introducing himself, he forgot all but the vision before him. After an awkward pause of a few moments the girl, her face turning crimson under his admiring glances said in a somewhat displeased tone, "Will you kindly inform me of the nature of this call?"

The young man apologized for his seeming rudeness and handed her the pocketbook, which she at once recognized as belonging to her friends Amalie. Explaining all, the two were soon engrossed in an animated conversation, though she did not at first seem disposed to overlook his indiscretion of reading the contents of the letter to her friend. The young man pleaded so earnestly and looked so crestfallen that she smiled and held out her hand, which Charles gratefully grasped and carried to his lips, perhaps a trifle implusively, for she quickly withdrew it.

To tell the truth, Miss Clara seemed to like the young foreigner, and before he left she had mentioned the fact that she and her friend Amalie would meet that evening at the Court theater, which would give her a chance to return the pocketbook to its owner. More than that, Charles by a few adroitly put questions, knew the exact location of the seats to be occupied by the party.

Of course he was there—a good deal too early too. The doors had hardly been opened, and he was for quite awhile alone in the vast aduitorium, whiling away the slowly creeping time by a study of the curtain, the chandelier, the carvings on boxes and galleries and by inspecting everything within the reach of his eyes. When the two young women arrived after having sorely tried Charlie's patience they, or at least Clara found, to her surprise (?) the young fellow seated in the stall next to hers and introduced him to her companion as "Mr. Berner of San Francisco," who had found her pocket book.

The phlegm which usually characterized every movement of the worthy landlord of the Blue Lion at M—— had all at once disappeared. Since the receipt of the letter from America he knew no rest. The best room was put in readiness for the expected guest, he inspected the house from top to bottom, he scolded the servants incessantly, and never before had his good wife known him to be such a tyrant and so hard to please. More than this, he would go to the parson and school teacher and make them point out to him the map of America and tell him about California, and in the evening he would impart this knowledge to his guests in the taproom, showing for the hundredth time the letter and talking about the rich young relative from the far west.

His daughter Marie took things much more quietly. If she liked him, she would be his wife; not, she was firmly resolved not to marry him, riches or no riches. In due time, she said to herself, she would find one who loved her and whom she loved in return.

* * * * *

One day in the latter part of August a carriage and pair were seen to approach the sleepy little town of M——. Its sole occupant was Henry Decker, who alighted some distance from the place, near the mines which to inspect he had come all the way from Hamburg.

Tired and out of sorts he wended his way along the dusty highway and entered the town. Reaching the market place he was spied by the portly host of the Blue Lion, who leaned against the threshold in anything but good humor, on account of the protracted delay in the arrival of his long expected nephew.

He looked hard at the stranger. Nobody he knew in this neighborhood was so fashionably dressed. A thought shot through his brain. The approaching man was his young relative, Charles Berner from America and no other! No one but an American looked like this. Quickly summoning wife and daughter, and running down the steps as fast as his portliness would admit, he embraced and kissed the stranger repeatedly, exclaiming:

"At last! At last! We have been expecting you for the longest time. How is your father? Well, I hope! But come inside and rest. Look, here are my wife and daughter. The older of the two is my wife. your —well of course you auat. And now kiss all around, as near relatives should"

Decker tried hard to unwind himself rom the old man's embrace, which almost derived him of breath. There was a mistake. At last, all he could utter was, "If you think, if you believe, sir, that I"—

"What the dickens!" the old man interrupted. "Of course I believe, nay I even insist that you'll kiss and become better acquainted. Which is our fashion among relatives, and no doubt among the Americans also. And my dear boy, what do you mean by sirring me? I am your uncle—that settles it!"

Again the dear boy tried to open his lips, but by this time they were sealed by his aunt's lips, who impressed a sounding smack on his. Not content with this performance, the old lady shoved him toward her daughter, whose cheeks were aflame up to her ears in the expectation of a kiss from her supposed kinsman and future husband.

The young fellow looked upon the picture of much innocence and lovliness before him. He reflected a moment and then—blame him who may—he took her in his arms and hugged and kissed her repeatedly.

Henry Decker was not slow to notice that this was a case of mistaken identity.

He was impressed with the sense of the ridiculous situation, and the dear little girl was so unspeakably pretty and innocent that he concluded since he was "in it" to let things take their own course and to await developements. He talked about America, he told the most improbable tales about California, and profiting by the confidence reposed in him by Charles Berner on board the steamship he told a tolerable straight story respecting his alleged family affairs in San Francisco

He saw the impression he had made on the heart of the suspecting Marie who never took her eyes off his face while he spoke, and his conscience smote him. He was filled with remorse for his deceit; but alas, it was now too late. He resolved to disclose the whole thing on the following morning.

A kind fate favored the discharge of this onerous task. Toward evening the old "uncle" made the proposition that the young people should take a walk in the surrounding gardens in order to as he indulgingly express it, give them a chance to become "better friends."

Henry did not let this unlooked for opportunity escape him. He told her all, he asked her pardon for the deception, and he called her as a witness how little chance her father had given him for an explanation.

The shock was too much for the poor girl. She grew pale, and a tremor shook her whole frame. She stood dumfounded and like one dazed; she could not at all comprehend the meaning of what she took to be a cruel joke She pressed her hand to her heart and sobbed pitifully.

But, now, convinced from the depth of her sorrow that the dear girl really loved him, it was not a very difficult matter for Henry to pacify her by telling her unhesitingly the entire story of his meeting with her American cousin; what the same had said regarding his feelings toward her; that he was not at all in a hurry to go to M——,and so forth. In short when they wended their way homeward, Marie not only pardoned the "cruel deception," but had bashfully confessed that since she had been so weak to give her heart away at first sight to so "cruel a deciever" shetwould leave it in his keeping, if only to teach her truant and wayward cousin a lesson

Henry Decker had a very unpleasant ordeal to face on the morrow.

"Mr. Moller," he said feelingly, ,,when yesterday I entered your house I had not the remotest idea that the most important moment of my life was so near at hand. I came as a total stranger to you. and you received me, not as such, but as if I were the future husband, the accepted lover. of your lovely daughter."

"Which you are, Charlie. Why do you make so many unnecessary words?"

"But, dear sir, give me a chance to explain."

"Or was I mistaken, after all? Do you not care for our daughter? Is there in all America a girl like our sweet Marie?"

"On the contrary, dear sir, all I desire is to be considered worthy of such a prize"—

"By thunder, Charlie, have you taken leave of your senses? Are all Americans affected in a like manner when proposing? Have I not told you plainly that we do not object? And"—turning to his daugter who had just entered—"Marie, do you care enough for this young man, who has so many confounded objections to make against you, to marry him?"

"Indeed I do father with all my heart," the maiden replied frankly.

"There! That ends the matter. No more nonsense now. Such matters ought to be settled quickly. Oh I know what I am talking about! Never would I have believed that a practical American could be such a circumlocutionist! Quick, now, the betrothl kiss, and there is our blessing to boot. One, two, thr"—

He was just going to say "three" when the door slowly turned on its hinges and a stranger entered, who stopped for a moment on the threshold, and then broke out into pleased laughter.

"You here friend Becker?" he exclaimed. "I thought you had inspected your mines long ago and were safely back at Hamburg!" Then turning to mine host, he extended his hands.

"Here I am at last, dear uncle," he said. "I know I tarried long on the way, but I had a very important matter to settle in Berlin, and could not possibly get away earlier. Everything is in tiptop condition at home in San Francisco, and father and mother both send their best regards."

"Sir, who are you?" gruffly asked the landlord of the Blue Lion.

"Who am I? What an odd question to ask of me! Why, to be sure I am Charles Berner, very much at your service, and the son of your cousin Berner of San Francisco."

The dazed old man leaned heavily upon a chair, looking bewildered from one to the other. His lips opened, he gasped for breath, he tried to say something, but could utter no sound. He sank fainting into the next chair.

Three months have passed since the events narrated above, and our readers have undoubtedly. guessed how it all ended. The "genuine" Charles Berner had been detained by very important matters in Berlin —that is, by Miss Clara Foster. But being an obedient son he took the journey to his relatives, in spite of the fact that his cousin Marie could be nothing to him.

Bursting suddenly in upon them at the very moment when his uncle "commanded" his friend Decker and Marie to embrace and give the "betrothal kiss," he had understood the situation at once and was not loath to help his "double" out of his dilemma by explaining all to his uncle and aunt, which he did the more gladly as his choice had been made ere he had met his cousin Marie.

The old people are perfectly satisfied with their son-in-law, and Mr. Moller tells his neighbors and guests often of the smart trick played on him by Henry Decker, invariably adding:

"He is all we could desire, but it is a pity, all the same, that he is not an American.—From the German.

Eureka Chemical & Mfg., Co., La Crosse Wis.—Gentlemen: For forty years I used tobacco in all its forms. For twenty-five years of that time I was a great sufferer from general debility and heart disease. For fifteen years I tried to quit, but couldn't. I took various remedies, among others "No-To-Bac," "The Indian Tobacco Antidote," "Double Chloride of Gold," etc., etc., but none of them did me the least bit of good. Finally, however, I purchased a box of your "Baco-Curo" and it has entirely cured me of the habit in all its forms, and I have increased thirty pounds in weight and am relieved from all the numerous aches and pains of the body and mind. I could write a quire of paper upon my changed feelings and condition.

Yours respectfully, P. H. Marbury.

HARPER'S MAGAZINE

IN 1896.

Bristles, a new novel by William Black written with all the author's well known charm of manner, will begin in the December number. 1895, and continue until May. A new novel by George du Maurier, entitled "The Martian," will also begin during the year. It is not too much to say that no novel has been awaited with such great expectation as the successor to Trilby. The Personal Recollection of Joan of Arc, will continue and will relate the story of the failure and martyrdom of the Maid of Orleans. Other important fiction of the year will be a novelette by Mark Twain, under the title of "Tom Sawyer, Detective;" a humorous three part tale called "Two Mormons from Muddiety," by Langdon Elwyn Mitchell; and short stories by Octave Thanet, Richard Harding Davis, Mary E. Wilkins, Julian Ralph, Brander Matthews, Owen Wister and other well known writers.

Prof. Woodrow Wilson will contribute six papers on George Washington and his times, with illustrations by Howard Pyle. Poultney Bigelow's history of the "German Struggle for Liberty," illustrated by R. Caton Woodville, will be continued through the winter. Two papers on St. Clair's defeat and Mad Anthony Wayn's victory, by Theodore Rosevelt with graphic illustrations will be printed during the year.

A noteworthy feature of the Magazine during 1896 will be a series of Articles by Casper W. Whitney, describing his trip of 2000 miles on snow shoes and with dog sledge trains into the unexplored barren grounds of British North America in pursuit of wood-bison and musk-oxen. Mr. Whitney's series will have the added interest of being illustrated from photographs taken by himself.

The volumns of the Magazine begin with the numbers of June and December of each year. When no time is mentioned, subscriptions will begin with the number current at the time of receipt of order.

Remittances should be made by postoffice money order or draft, to avoid chance of loss

A Short Story.

In Wilkes-Barre life-Interesting to the public at large Many a reader of this in Wilkes-Barre has seen the large watch sign that hangs out at No 40 North Main street. It is there to tell the people who see it that Robert W. Haight. Watchmaker, etc., can be found at that location, and perhaps you may doubt the following in which case you can always find Mr. Haight at this address ready to please and verify it. Watchmaking as it is called, is no doubt thought to be a comparatively easy business on the constitution of a man, but this is not the case. The constant stopping position mantained while at work brings with it many aches and pains. Such positions in time effect the action of the kidneys, and this is just what it did in the case or Mr. Haight, and he began to look for a remedy that would relieve. At last he was rewarded. One day the read of Doan's Kidney Pills. Nothing was claimed for them but that they were a Kidney cure. All the ills the flesh is heir to were not set down as being subject to their wondrous influence, and this inspired confidence in them. Three or four doses brought a change, and day by day he grew better and now he says: I am entirely over my trouble. Home remedies I have used, but found but relief of a temporary nature. My greatest trouble was lameness and stiffness in the back, with sharp, shooting pains in the region of the Kidneys. I consider Doan's Kidney Pills a good and safe remedy, and I recommend them to others. No better proof of merit can be offered than the plain facts as stated by those who know by experience. Call on Mr. Haight if you doubt this. For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents, Mailed by Foster Millburn Co., Buffalo, N. Y. sole agent for the U. S. Remember the name, Doan's and take no other.

He Had Hard Luck.

Going down to Staten Island the other day was a seedy-genteel young man with a lonesome expression of countenance, who had sat near the railing on the upper deck, suddenly began removing his shoes and outer garments.

Of course the people around him were excited, but he gave them no attention. When he was about to leap over one of the ferry policemen came sauntering up and said:

"You, there, put on your coat and vest!"

The young man donned the articles mentioned, and the officer continued:

"Now put on your shoes."

In a couple of minutes the shoes were on, and then the officer said:

"Now, you sit down back there, or I'll heave you overboard!"

"Can't a fellow commit suicide if he wants to?" muttered the young man.

"Of course he can but you don't want to. This is about the tenth time you have gone to all this fussing and yet haven't jumped in. You make me tird, you do!',

"Do you really intend to committ suicide?" I asked of the young man a few minutes later.

"Certainly I intend to!" he replied.

"But changed your mind every time, eh?"

"Yes. People begin to coax and argue with me, and one and another hands me a quarter, and so I decide to live on. Hang that block of an officer. He's beat me out of at least two big dollars right here, and hurt my feelings besides! You'd have given me a quarter to stop wouldn't you?"

WASHINGTON LETTER.

Washington, D. C. May 4, 1896.

From our regular correspondent.

While nothing is certain in politics until it has been accomplished, the impression is well nigh general in Congress, although few of those who are committed to other candidates will not publically admit as such, that Gov. McKinley will be nominated for president by the St. Louis convention. The original McKinley men express confidence that no ballot will be taken but that the nomination will be made by acclamation. Of course it is possible that something may occur that will change matters, and it is largely upon that something that the opponents of Gov McKinley are now banking, but from the best obtainable information in Washington it looks at this time as if McKinley was bound to win.

Members of the House are disposed to resent the action of the Senate in reducing the number of battleships provided for in the Naval Appropriation bill from 4 to 2, and the House will probably refuse to agree to Senate amendment, The House often refuses to agree to Senate amendments, but somehow or other the Senate nearly always succeeds in having its way, and as members of the house are much more anxious to get home—some of them have got to fight for renomination—than the senators, this will probably not be an exception to the rule, if the senate refuses to recede. But the vote in favor of the amendment was close—31 to 27—and upon a fuller attendance of the Senate enough votes may be obtained to recede from the amendment.

The house passed the general bankruptcy bill by a vote of 157 to 81. Whether the bill will be disposed of by the Senate at this session is not yet certain. It will depend largely on whether an agreement can be reached to limit the debate to a given time.

Representative Baker of New Hampshire, has offered a concurrent resolution providing for an investigation by a select congressional committee of the recent purchase of seed by Secretary Morton. A preamble to the resolution sets forth the charges made against Secretary Morton by a Chicago firm of seedsmen; also Secretary Morton's charge that senators and representatives often dispose of their quota of seeds for cash instead of having them sent to their constituents.

If Senator Tillman of S. C., was given his just deserts he would be expelled from the Senate for having insulted that body. Upon two occasions he has delivered harangues on the floor of the Senate chamber, by a copious use of ungentlemanly language. Other Senators have criticised other public men just as harshly as Tillman did, and it being their right to do so no objection being made, but no other Senator has ever belched for such a deluge of billingsgate as Tillman did, and the worst of it is that he claims all his blackgardism to be done in the name of the people and in the interests of reform. The reform of which Tillman is the apostle is truly to be pitied. How hollow it may be judged from the fact that Tillman drew his salary as Senator for the time he was traveling in the West making blackguard speeches, without a blush. Some of the ablest silver men in Congress believe that Tillman has done the cause of silver irreparable injury by his wild talk. It must be galling to South Corolinians to read of Tillman's boast that he has the electoral vote of that state completely under his control and can place it wherever he pleases. A more disgusting or disgraceful boast was never publically made in this country. It is a little more that the boldest political boss has ever dared to do.

It is believed that when Senator Hill stated in his speech, on the floor of the Senate that he didn't believe Mr. Cleveland would again be a candidate for the Democratic nomination, that the foxy New Yorker was trying to smoke him out and to get him to make a definite declaration of his intentions. The wording of the platform adopted by the Michigan democratic convention, which was probably prepared by Don Dickinson has increased the belief in Washington that Mr. Cleveland intends to capture that nomination for himself unless the silver democrats make it impossible by capturing the Chicago convention.

Although democratic Senators have assured their republican colleagues that they would do nothing to prevent an early adjournment there is a belief in some quarters that the assurance had a string tied to it which will become visible when the republicans report a resolution to the Senate setting a date for adjournment.

"The world is ever as we take it, And life, dear child, is what we make it."

This was the sentiment of an old lady to her grandchild Mabel. And many a Mabel has found it to be true, and she has taken care of her health. She keeps on hand a supply of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription, and so is not troubled with those wasting diseases, weaknesses, "dragging-down" sensations and functional irregularities that so many women endure.

"Favorite Prescription" contains no alcohol to inebriate; no syrup or sugar to derange digestion. As peculiar in its remedial results as in its composition.

As a powerful, invigorating tonic, it imparts strength to the whole system, particularly to the womb and its appendages. For feeble women generally, Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription is unequaled as an appetizing cordial and restorative tonic.

A Book of 168 pages, on "Woman and Her Diseases," their Nature, and How to Cure them by home treatment, sent sealed in plain envelope, on receipt of ten cents in stamps for postage. This book is profusely illustrated with wood-cuts and colored plates, also with a vast number of reproduced photographs of those cured by the use of "Favorite Prescription" and without having to go through the ordeal of consulting a doctor. Full names and addresses are given so you can correspond and learn their experiences in curing themselves. Address, WORLD'S DISPENSARY MEDICAL ASSOCIATION, Buffalo, N. Y.

Mrs. Jos. G. COLLINS, (P. O. Box 187) of *Alfred Centre, Allegany Co., N. Had been sick for four months with uterine troubles—can now be around on my feet without any trouble whatever; before taking 'Favorite Prescription' I could hardly get around at all. I hope this statement will benefit others."

Commercial Tariff Convention.

A Convention of the Commercial, Manufacturing, Labor, and Agricultural organizations of the United States will be held in the city of Detroit, opening Tuesday, June 2, 1896, and continuing from day to day, until the business brought before it shall be completed.

The subjects to be acted upon at such convention are:

First—The discussion of ways and means for taking the Tariff question out of partisan politics and making it a business question, instead of a "Political football."

Second—The discussion of ways and means for the improvement of the Consular service of the United States and the employment of such service for the increasing of our foreign trade, especially with the Central and South America Republics.

Third The advisability of recommending to Congress the creation of a department of Commerce Manufactures and Labor, and of making the chief of such a department a member of the President's Cabinet.

Fourth—The advisability of forming a permanent organization for the purpose of holding Annual Conventions for the consideration of National questions and of recommending to Congress each year such changes in our laws or in their administration as may be deemed for the best interest of our country.

The convention will be non-political and non-sectional, and all questions must be discussed from a purely commercial standpoint.

The invitation herewith tendered is without limit as to the numberof attendants, and is cordially extended not only to accredited delegates from organizations either Commercial Manufacturing, Lobor, or Agricultural, but to every citizen who may be interested in the questions to be discussed, and who believes that more can be accomplished by the united effort of all the different interests involved than by each acting independent of the other, to meet with us.

The plans adopted by this convention will be put in proper shape, and a committee appointed to present them to the two great political conventions to be held in June and July respectively, and urge their embodiment in their respective platforms.

When Big Sleeves Go.

Much interest attaches to the rumor which comes from London that the Princess of Wales and her daughters have been lately seen in gowns with small sleeves and narrow skirts, remarks the San Francisco Argonaut.

This bit of intelligence does not necessarily cinch the doom of the baloon sleeves and the letter (A) skirts, but it will tend to make prudent investors wary of locking up much capital in those vanities.

Of course the baloon sleeve must go presently. When fashionable mothers began to put them on little boys' legged nightgowns it became apparent that the taste for them had come to an extravagance and could not last.

But it will be a shock to miss them. Doubtless we will find our friends much changed when we get down to the real sleeves again. Some who have grown stout will not shrink as much as we expect, and others who wore away in the hard times perhaps will shrink much more.

But let us have the facts at any cost, especially as there must be material enough in the present sleeves and skirts, to cut over into anything conceiveable and have enough left over to clothe a child

The Ballot for Women.

Elizabeth Lyle Saxon of New Orleans

The legal and civil disabilities of women are a violation of human rights, odious abuse of power on the part of the strong, with the cruel axiom carried out in the action "might makesright."

Woman is to-day ready for civil liberty, by the progressisbe hasi made, and by the duties that have been thrust upon her by changed conditions, which compel her to labor outside of domestic life, for her own and her children's support.

Women are just as capable of judging and determining the use of just and equitable laws as men are, and have as strong love of country, and as exalted and pure patriotism as men have.

Woman has from the long centuries of inability to earn for herself, been compelled to economize the money grudgingly doled, or freely given and she will carry into the national household her spirit of economy and order, her love of detail, and hate of waste and foolish expense, will reform government, and supress sinecures and accumulation of offices, will produce much from little instead of like men producing little from much; and the poor tax-payer will not find fault with the change.

The negro always feels that his chance for securing justice is increased by having one of his own race on the jury if tried for crime, or suspicion of crime, yet woman is made amenable to laws, even punished by death, under laws to which her consept has never been asked or given; it is declared "men shall be tried by a jury of their peers," she is tried by a jury of masters by right of both sex and law; deprived of the ballot she has no means of protection against legal or judicial injustice.

Possessed of the voting power they will stand before the law equal with men, and will be able not only to redress their own wrongs, but to vote for purer men: if women go to the polls, the better class of men will go,—those who are now conspicuous by their absence, and have by their neglect turned municipal governments over to a class of men with whom they would not entrust a purse for ten seconds.

Under such conditions every evil has been fostered, that will drag down and ruin the youth of the land, for sons follow the father's example, oftener than the mother's counsel when they pass from under their control.

English municipalities are better governed than those of America; their women vote, and the ballot is a symbol of dignity, as well as of liberty, and it alone can give real citizenship.

AUDITOR GENERAL MYLIN had a conference yesterday with Joseph D. Weeks, of Pittsburg, Leonard Rhone, worthy master of the State Grange, and Representative Frank N. Moore, of Bradford, members of the Pennsylvania state tax conference regarding the enforcement of concurrent resolution of the legislature on the proposed tax conference revenue measure. It was agreed to send out blanks in order to test the bill as a revenue raiser. The returns will be made to the auditor general the same as though the bill was in full force and effect. The results will be made known to the next legislature. There has been much contention as to methods of taxation. It is believed a fair test of the provisions of the proposed measure tentatively will enable the legislature to get down to a settled policy regarding taxation. The blanks prepared by the auditor general were slightly modified to meet the objections of members of the tax conference.

Among many very attractive short articles—saying nothing of the illustrations, which are superb—in Monthly Illustrator and Home and Country, New York, for May, are two which will attract particular attention. One of these, "The Story of a Child," by Arabella Ward, is evidently part of the life-history of a woman, told as if it were a dream. It is very attractive. And so true to nature, too. The other one, "A Danger Run," from the French of Ernest Daudet, by Charles C. Barton, is the story of a great temptation. Truly, love is indescribe. As a family and art magazine this is a leader. Issued by the Monthly Illustrator Publishing Co., 66-68 Centre street, New York. Subscription, $2.00 per year.

STOLE HIS OWN CHILD.

A Divorced Husband Abducts His Young Daughter, Forcibly Places Her in a Buggy and Driving Her Away in Broad Daylight.

Beaver Falls, Pa, May 6.—A very sensational case of kidnapping occurred here this morning. A little girl about 9 years old was on her way to school, when she was seized by a man who placed her in a buggy standing near, and, notwithstanding the child's screams and struggles, drove away at a rapid rate and was soon lost to sight.

The school children who were witnesses of the affair ran to the school house and told Supt Reed what had happened and the police were at once notified.

It was learned that the child's mother, whose present name is Mrs. Ada Saunders, was formerly the wife of a man named Baker, from whom she was divorced over two years ago, the court at the same time giving the mother full control of the little girl, which had been born to her and Baker.

Mrs. Saunders has been frequently warned to be on the lookout for her former husband, and for some time she accompanied the little girl to and from school, but as this took up much time the practice was discontinued.

It appears that Baker had been here sizing up the situation, and this morning hired a buggy to drive to Wampum, and arranged that the proprietor of the stable was to send for the rig, as he, Baker, wanted to take the train at Wampum for Youngstown. A brother of Mrs. Saunders has accompanied the officers on the search for Baker.

A telegram received late this afternoon states that Baker has been located at Canton, O., but later communication fails to make the matter certain. A man named Benjamin Steickles has been arrested as an accomplice of Baker in the abduction.

Both Claim the Office.

Harrisburg, Pa., May 6.—Majo Wilson Kress, Supreme Court reporter, has filed an answer disputing the contention that the governor overstepped his authority when he removed James Monaghan and appointed a successor to him. Major Kress says that Monaghan had not notified him of any purpose to make a contest for the office of court reporter until about a year after the change had taken place, but on the other hand he had been left under the impression that no movement would be made to test his claim to the position. The incumbent refers to the fact that on assuming the duties of court reporter, the papers in possession of Mr. Monaghan, including manuscript opinions of the Supreme Court, paper books, and other documents, were surrendered by the latter.

Coming Home.

Rev. J. Milliken Goheen, with his wife and three children, arrived in New York on Tuesday afternoon from India, and will reach Tyrone on Thursday, where he will be greeted by his brothers, and later will go to Rock Springs, Centre county, where his venerable father, J. J. Goheen, is waiting to welcome him to the old homestead. Rev. Mr. Goheen has been working under the Foreign Missionary Board of the Presbyterian church, and has been in India engaged in mission work for nearly nine years without a trip home. He has been granted a leave of absence for vacation of a year and a half from his labors, and will spend that time in the land of his birth. The trip from his far eastern home was a long one. Rev. Mr. Goheen and family left Kolhapur, India, on March 11 last, and have been almost two months en route.—Tyrone Herald.

Whitney Has Not Decided.

Philadelphia, May 5.—The dispatch from Boston yesterday, stating that Mr Casper Whitney, of New York, to whom the arbitration of the question of the eligibility of the Harvard and Pennsylvania foot ball men had been submitted, had announced himself in favor of the Harvard elegibilitys rules, thus barring Captain Williams and Fullback Brooke, of the University of Pennsylvania, is denied by Mr. Whitney in a telegram to Dr. G. William White, of the University committee. His telegram is as follows: "Have made no such statement, officially or otherwise, to any one."

A Test of Armor Plate.

Bethlehem, Pa., May 5. — Captain Sampson, Professor Alger and other members of the bureau of ordnance to-day witnessed the attack by a ten inch gun of a fifteen inch armor plate at the Bethlehem Iron Company's proving grounds the plate representing the group of plates for the turret of the battleship Iowa. It weighted thirty-eight tons; was seventeen feet wide, nine feet high and fifteen inches thich, and was the largest plate ever fired at in this country. A Carpenter projectile weighing 500 pounds was fired from a ten inch gun with a charge of 150 pounds of powder, attaining a velocity of 1,339 feet per second. The point of impact was a little to the left and below the centre of the plate. The projectile was shattered and the point imbedded and welded in the plate. The plate was split across its width, while there was a crack to the bottom. The manner in which the plate cracked was very strange, as there were no radiating cracks from the point of impact. The result was not an entire surprise, for the plate was originally rejected on account of flaws noticed in one end. The company had confidence that the plate would stand the test, however, and decided to fire at it. The cracking of the plate was the opening of internals flaws known to have existed previously. Under the circumstances the ordnance officials did not consider it advisabl to continue the test. The company wil be permitted to present another plate to be tested.

A Neat Souvenir.

At the close of a recent school term in Boggs Township, the teacher, Mr. H. I. Leathers, son of the veteran Patron, S. B. Leathers, of Mount Eagle, bestowed upon each pupil a neat and appropriate souvenir in the shape of a handsomely engraved card, on the face of which, on the left end was an imprint of the Globe, over which were the words "Popular Education, the Power that Moves the World." On right end a pile of books, pens, &c., and underneath a vignette likeness of the teacher. On the reverse side, neatly printed, a complete roster of the scholars attending the school during the term, the names of the school Directors and County Supt., and written signature of the teacher. We have no doubt in coming years this little souvenir will be highly prized when the mutations of time shall have separated teacher and scholars.

New Train and New Name.

Philadelphia. May 5.—The Lehigh Valley Railroad company have adopted "Black Diamond Express" as the name for the limited express trains they propose putting in service between New York, Philadelphia and Buffalo. The suggestion of the name was by Mr. Charles Montgomery, a hotel clerk of Toledo, O., and he has been awarded the $25 in gold offered by the railroad company for the most appropriate name, These trains will commence running May 18 simultaneously from New York and Buffalo starting at 12 o'clock noon daily except Sunday and making the run in ten hours.

Noteworthy.

When the political Conventions of both parties were selecting their delegates to the respective State Conventions, not a single farmer was chosen to represent this great agriculture county! Nearly every other class were cared for, but Agriculture which overtops all other interests in Centre county will have no voice in naming Pennsylvania's choice for President in 1896, or a word to say in regard to the character of the plank in the platform.—Patron.

An Interesting Anniversary.

The fiftieth anniversary of the raising of the first flag in California will be celebrated at Monterey on July 7. Thomas Brodlee, who raised the flag on that occasion, is still living in Monterey, and will repeat the performance at the fourth-coming anniversary.

THE abnormally low prices of wheat cannot be laid to the charge of over production, since Agricultural statistics report the crop of 1895 one hundred million bushels less than 1894. Dear money has caused the difficulty.

A GIRL'S DANGER.

Mothers are Altogether too Delicate About Advising Their Daughters.

Plain, Sensible Talks to Them Oftentimes Saves Years of Suffering; and it is Entirely a False Modesty on the Mother's Part that Keeps Her from Her Known Duty.

From the Agitator, Wellsboro, Pa.

In Elkland, Pennsylvania, a small town located on the Cowanesque River Railroad, there lived for some years, prior to 1880, Mr. Charles H. Heath, whose profession was that of a blacksmith. He had chosen for his life companion Miss Genie Boyd and here settled with his little family to earn a living by the side of his already well-beaten anvil. On January 8th, in the year 1882, there was born unto Mr. and Mrs. Heath a beautiful baby girl, with health which promised to add to the home one more joy. For this daughter the parents chose the name of Clara B., and, indeed, she was a bright star in that little circle.

A few years later, Mr. Heath seeing a better opportunity for earning his livelihood, removed his family to Harrison Valley, a town located on the same branch of railroad near its terminus. Here for a while everything was bright and the future promised to be one of comfort to them, but suddenly it became fully apparent to the father and mother that the radiant face of their little daughter was beginning to fade. This caused them much anxiety, and a physician was consulted, but little, if anything, was done to restore the vanishing beauty to their little one. The father toiled on faithfully to provide for the dependents, but the sunlight seemed to be fast fading from their home.

In March, 1892, thinking a change in location might add vigor to Clara, they took up their abode in a beautiful little town situated between the mountains, known as Little Marsh, Pa., and where nature itself seemed to be a physician superior to all mankind. Here, for a time, the change of air seemed to revive their daughter Clara, but soon other weaknesses established themselves in her body, which promised to take her from their midst.

Physicians were summoned, but she continued to grow worse and it was very evident that only a few short days remained for her on earth. The mother was distracted upon realizing the situation of her loving daughter, and it was while relating her condition to a neighbor, Mrs. Southworth, in January, 1895, that she learned of the wonderful results obtained by the use of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for female weaknesses.

Everything else having failed to add one glimmer of light to the life so fast fading away, a fifty-cent box of Pink Pills was procured from the druggist, hoping that there might be something in this new remedy. Already Clara's complexion had grown to be of that faded color so well-known to all similarly affected. Time rolled on and she was stricken down more closely with nervous prostration and again all hope seemed to vanish. Still she continued the treatment of Dr. Williams, and when the first box was gone there seemed to be a change for the better. Her nerves had grown stronger and other weaknesses seemed to mend. "Where there is life there is hope," and another box was purchased and taken as prescribed. Clara continued to grow stronger each day and there seemed to be new life in the little home again. Father and mother were both elated to see the improvement and once more have their daughter join their family circle.

Now Miss Clara speaks for herself: "I have continued to take Dr. Williams' Pink Pills up to the present time and it has only cost the small amount of $4.00 to place me where I am to-day. My health is better than ever before; my complexion was never so rosy and I am never troubled with nervous spells as before using this remedy. I attribute my present condition to the healing powers of Pink Pills for Pale People, and I am glad to recommend them to any suffering as I was. My appetite, which before their use had nearly failed me, is now as good as one need wish for, and I am readily able to enjoy the pleasures of life to last denied me."

Miss Heath is still using the Pink Pills and declares her intention to do so until she require medicine of any kind. She also relates instances of her friends who are having as good results as hers from their use.

MRS. CAREY'S ENTHUSIASM AT SIXTY.

Her Daughter Marvelously Cured, then Her Own Life Saved.

From the Era, Bradford, Pa.

Mrs. Hannah Carey, an estimable lady who resides at No. 51 High Street, Bradford Pa., is enthusiastic in her praise of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills.

Mrs. Carey is sixty years of age, but still possesses much of the youthful appearance of her younger days. She had never known a day's illness until a year ago, when she showed signs of general breaking down of the system. She grew emaciated, lost her appetite and it was only by a great effort that she kept on her feet.

Several different kinds of medicine were tried but her condition steadily grew worse. "I had almost given up hopes of bettering my condition," said Mrs. Carey to a newspaper man, "when I concluded to give Pink Pills a trial. Some time before, my daughter, Mrs. P. Raher, who then resided at Punxsutawney, Pa., had been marvelously cured of heart trouble by these wonderful pills and I concluded to see what virtue they possessed for the ailments of people of my age. Before I had taken the contents of one box, I noticed a change in my condition. I seemed to regain my lost strength, my appetite returned, the feeling of oppressiveness which had tortured me passed away and life took on new beauties. I took four boxes of the pills and when I had finished, my health was as good as it was before the illness. I am satisfied that Pink Pills saved me untold suffering and probably saved my life. For this reason I am always willing to recommend them to all who suffer as I did."

Dr. Williams' Pink Pills are not looked upon as a patent medicine, but rather as a prescription. An analysis of their properties shows that they contain, in a condensed form, all the elements necessary to give new life and richness to the blood and restore shattered nerves. They are an unfailing specific for such diseases as locomotor ataxia, partial paralysis, St. Vitus' dance, sciatica, neuralgia, rheumatism, nervous headache, the after effects of la grippe, palpitation of the heart, pale and sallow complexions, and the tired feeling resulting from nervous prostration, all diseases resulting from vitiated humors in the blood, such as scrofula, chronic erysipelas, etc. They are also a specific for troubles peculiar to females, such as suppressions, irregularities and all forms of weakness. They build up the blood, and restore the glow of health to pale and sallow cheeks. They are for sale by all druggists, or may be had by mail from Dr. Williams' Medicine Company, Schenectady N. Y., for 50c. per box, or six boxes for $2.50.

LAST WEEK'S TRADE REVIEW

What is Going on in The Business World Just at Present.

PRICES THE LOWEST EVER KNOWN

But Wholesale Merchants in Staple Lines Have Great Confidence For The Future— Few Strikes For This Time of The Year.

New York, May 1.—R. G. H. Dunn & Co. will say to-morrow in their weekly review of trade; failures for the week have been 238 in the United States against 231 last year, and 31 in Canada, against 31 last year.

As the season advances there is more business, but advices indicate that on the whole the prevalent feeling is that the gain is less than there was reason to expect. While retail trade has been active enough to materially lessen stocks and obligations, and thus to prevent a great many threatened embarrasments it has not yet brought enough new business to mills or factories to prevent decrease of unfilled orders and closing of some works. Substantially the same state of things exists in all the great industries notwithstanding the strong combinations in some and evidence of inadequate consumption appears in the fact that the general range of prices for commodities, farm and mine as well as well as manufactured products is nearly one per cent lower than it was April 1 and the lowest ever known since October 1892, being 16.7 per cent. Nor can this be attributed to scarcity of money, which is easier and more abundant as the liquidation of many dealers lessens outstanding obligations. Foreign operations have been of no influence in American securities, but shipments of silver have again been large. Stocks have remained practically without change

Large purchases of lake ore by the principal consumers, contracts securing control of low phosphorus oar and lower rates to Chicago for Connellsville coke in order to complete with Pocohontas coke, are the main features of the iron industry, but the revival of demand is yet deferred. Higher prices for nails have caused active buying for the week, but large consumers decline to contract as yet for bars, and the rod combination has fallen through. Middlemen still sell steel billets at $19 at Pittsburg, against $20 asked by the pool, but the stocks available is said to be only 30,000 tons. Structural prospects are good but in other branches the demand is less active and Bessemer pig is weak at $13 at Pittsburg. The anthracite coal concerns have advanced the price .25 per ton.

Climax Brandy of Grape.

The superior vintage of 1876 Brandy, introduced by the Speer N. J. Wine Co., is highly spoken of by physicians. The following testimonial from the Baltimore Medical College is one among many:

I am prepared to bear testimony to the value of your Climax Brandy predicated upon the ascertained value of your productions, and not from general reputation merely.

Table Talk

One feature that makes "Table Talk", (the American authority upon culinary and household topics) so helpful to the housekeepers and home-makers, is the fact that it is up to date in everything pretaining to the home. Too much cannot be said in favor of this generous aid. The April issue has for its leading article "A Breakfast Toast," by Mrs. S. C. Hallowell, formerly a member of the staff of the Philadelphia Ledger. It also contains an excellent article on "Nursery Emergencies" by Dr. H. H. Hawxhurst; a diversified and interesting "New Bill of Fare": Menus for every meal during the month, and in the Entertainment Bureau is to be found a description of a Poster Party, a new and very popular way of entertaining just now while posters are the "fad". If you do not already know this magazine, avail yourself of its offer to send a sample copy to any of our readers, who will send their address to Table Talk Publishing Co. Philadelphia, Pa.

—"The survey of the projected railroad between Bellefonte and Clearfield is striking consternation to the hearts of the people of Woodland, as the line passes directly through a number of houses in that village. It strikes us that the people who have their homes built there now, have a little better right to the place than the builders of railroads. There's plenty of land out there that isn't built upon to build railroads on without running through people's houses."—Philipsburg Ledger.

Just as you have it, Miss Ledger. We are sure that the Railroad company will do as you wish, so just make any suggestions you deem necessary and we assure you they will be thankfully received and carried out to the letter. If you wish the railroad removed to some other place it shall be done immediately. So fire away with your orders.

—An immigrant girl brought smallpox to Braddock and the town is greatly excited.

A packed house greeted "The Drummer Boy of Shiloh" on Satuaday night and the performance was even more successful than those of the three nights before. The parts were all well taken and the audience grew fairly wild at times so realistic were some of the scenes. Several boquets were presented to the ladies by friends during the evening. The most noticeable feature of the program was the entire absence of the disgusting conduct of different College students of the night before which had every semblance of bowery toughs and it was the general opinion that some of the students had better slide off into the back woods for several years as they would then be in their place. Their were a few of the students who behaved like gentlemen but the others are far from bearing that title.

NOTE.

In accordance with the act of June 6, 1857, interest will be added to the amount of all taxes assessed against unseated lands above advertised. JOHN Q. MILES,
4-2-10t County Treasurer.

THE unprecedented success which has attended the Order of the Patrons of Husbandry in Centre County and Pennsylvania is largely attributable to the fact that it has insisted that as it is a farmers' organization, it should be directly under the control of practical farmers. It has been required that Masters of subordinate, Pomona and State Granges shall be men that either "Hold the Plow, themselves or drive." There is no better talent in the state than is to be found on the farm. When the order abandons the time honored usage then will decline begin.—Patron

AN ORDINANCE PROVIDING FOR PUNishing Vagrants. Tramps and violators of the Peace Ordinances of the Borough of Bellefonte:

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the Burgess and Town Council of the Borough of Bellefonte, in the County of Centre, that any person or persons convicted before the Chief Burgess or any Justice of the Peace of the Borough of Bellefonte of a violation of any of the Peace Ordinances of said Borough, or of being a Vagrant or Tramp therein, shall be sentenced to pay a fine of not less than one dollar, nor more than ten dollars, for the use of the Borough, and the costs, for every such offense, and upon failure to pay the fine imposed such person or persons shall be committed to the Borough Lock-up for a term not exceeding five days, or be compelled to work upon the public works or highways and streets of said Borough for a period of time not exceeding one day for each dollar of fine so as aforesaid imposed.

SEC. 2. Every person sentenced to work, as provided in the First Section of this Ordinance, shall be put to work by and continue under the direction of the Street Commissioner whilst working out his sentence; and during such time be lodged at night in the Borough Lock-up under the care of the Chief of Police, or his assistant, whose duty it shall be to provide such person with plain food, the cost of which shall be paid by the Borough.

Ordained and enacted into an Ordinance this 6th day of April, A. D. 1896.

HENRY BROCKERHOFF,
President of Town Council.

Attest:

ISAAC MITCHELL, Clerk.

Approved, April 29th, 1896.

Sour

Stomach, sometimes called waterbrash, and burning pain, distress, nausea, dyspepsia, are cured by Hood's Sarsaparilla. This it accomplishes because with its wonderful power as a blood purifier, Hood's Sarsaparilla gently tones and strengthens the stomach and digestive organs, invigorates the liver, creates an appetite, gives refreshing sleep, and raises the health tone. In cases of dyspepsia and indigestion it seems to have "a magic touch."

"For over 12 years I suffered from sour with severe pains across my shoulders, and great distress. I had violent nausea which would leave me very weak and faint, difficult to get my breath. These spells came oftener and more severe. I did not receive any lasting benefit from physicians, but found such happy effects from a trial of Hood's Sarsaparilla, that I took several bottles and mean to always keep it in the house. I am now able to do all my own work, which for six years I have been unable to do. My husband and son have also been greatly benefited by Hood's Sarsaparilla—for pains in the back, and after the grip. I gladly recommend this grand blood medicine." MRS. WHY IT MEANS LUCK.

A Canadian Woman Has Discovered the Reason for Suspending the Horseshoe.

Perhaps we have all wondered why a horseshoe should mean good luck. It remained for a Canadian woman to enlighten us.

She says that she has discovered the reason in her travels about her native country, where she has often seen, in a peasant's cottage, the emblem and it significance exemplified. Roman Catholics usually have a picture of the Virgin hung up in their homes, and they have a way of half framing this small presentment by suspending a horseshoe over it so that the curving sides will partially inclose the picture.

It is deemed a pious deed to thus show forth one's religion, and an act that will be rewarded; hence the good fortune has come to extend, in thought and tradition, to the frame itself. And hence the general idea that the shoe must hang with the open end downward.

That is because it is always so used as a frame.

COMBINED influence through the Grange secured to the farmers of the United State the Agricultural Department, presided over by a Secretary of Agriculture, who has equal influence and power in the Presidents Cabinet with the heads of other departments of the National Government. It is the duty of this official when the interests of our great class are jeopardized by injurious legislation or other causes to carefully study the situation and suggest to the President and Congress such suggestions as in his judgment will avert the threatened danger or afford the necessary relief—A fitting recognition of our great class.—Patron.

THE year's exports of grain and flour were $120,000,000, a loss of a little more than $1,000,000 compared with '94. There was an important gain of nearly $8,000,000 in corn, which went abroad to the extent of 98,000,000 bushels, against only 40,000,000 the previous year. Exports of wheat were 66,000,000, a loss of 6,000,000, and of flour 14,000,000 bbls, a loss of 1,700,000, with a corresponding shrinkage in total values. Should available supplies in South America and Australia prove smaller, as now seems probable, and should Russia continue to work for higher prices, our own foreign trade ought to improve.

WHAT is the average reader to understand by "Filled cheese," which is so roundly condemned by pure food advocates, and has resulted in nearly driving American cheese from foreign markets. According to the authoritity of Chemists who have tested the counterfeit it is said that all the butter fat is carefully extracted from the milk and fats or oils of different kinds substituted for the butter fat to give it the appearance of the regular Dairy production. In some cases ingredients are employed that are not only unwholesome but really indigestible and poisonous.

Any Bond Issue to Protect the Reserve is Robbery.

"In point of fact a so called 'popular' loan is no more justifiable than the dicker with the syndicate. In either case the people will be robbed for the benefit of the men who have been hoarding gold for just such an emergency as the administration proposes to invent. Any bond issue for the purpose of maintaining a reserve that is not provided for by law is robbery of the people pure and simple for the reason that the whole intention of such an issue is to give the owners of gold a safe investment for their hoards. Under the so called 'popular' loan every dollar of bonds would either be taken up by the banks or by men who are hoarding gold in the hope of disposing of it at a profit. There would by no 'popular' loan in the ordinary meaning of that term."—The Constitution (Dem.) Atlanta, Ga.

Must be Labeled.

The department of agriculture has issued the order that all vegetables colored by any process must be distinctly labeled "Artificially Colored," or the person offering or selling them will be liable for the full penalties of the pure food law. This decision has been erroneously published as applying to French vegetables only; if this phase is accepted it may get innocent persons into trouble. The decision relates to any and all vegetables thus colored and the department has not singled out French vegetables as a class for the application of the law.

Poor Indeed.

There are degrees and kinds of poverty, just as there are differences of opinion among those who compute and measure poverty and riches by different standards. Some men deem themselves poor because they are less rich than others, again there are comparatively poor people who are satisfied with a competence, There is a kind of poverty for which no wealth can compensate, namely, a poverty of bodily stamina, evinced by nervousness and a derangement of the functions of digestion, bilious secretion and the bowels. To restore vigor upon a permanent basis there is one remedy that fully covers the requirements, "fills the bill," and this is Hostetter's Stomach Bitters. By restoring digestion, giving a healthful impulse to the action of the bowels and liver and tranquilizeing the nerves, it fulfills the condition necessary to a resumption of strength by the system. It also overcomes malaria and rheumatism.

MISS FLORENCE KING EMBREY lacked just ten votes of being elected police court justice at Edison Park, a Chicago suburb.

An Awful Funny Story

was revealed by Smythe at the club the other night. When the laughter had subsided some one said: "Smythe, I never saw a man change as you have during the past year. A few months ago you were the most taciturn man imaginable; now you are the life of the party. How is it?" "My dear fellow," replied Smythe, "a year ago I was a sick man. I was suffering from liver and stomach derangements. I was morbid and melancholy, and my friends, the doctor included, thought I was going into consumption. One day some one advised me to take Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. I did so, and I am a new man. It has actually renewed

IN TROUBLE AGAIN.

"Roscoe" Otto Gumper Comes to Grief The Second Time During His Visit to Bellefonte in Search of Health.

Again poor "Roscoe" Otto Gumper is in the toils. This time it is on a more serious charge than the one for which he was recently arrested and lodged in jail. He is now accused by J. S. Roshon & Co., picture manufacturers at Harrisburg, with having collected money belonging to them on false pretenses and appropriating it to his own use. "Roscoe" was taken to Harrisburg on Friday evening by City Detective W. L. Windsor, Jr., of Harrisburg, and is now languishing behind prison bars waiting to face his accusers.

"Roscoe," it seems, is doomed to be continually getting into trouble. Several weeks ago he was arrested and lodged in jail, charged with furnishing liquor to intemperate persons. He was in jail altogether about three weeks and never had a trial, as he "worked" the County Commissioners by feigning illness, and was released on the condition that he leave town at once. But the wily "Roscoe" was too smart for the county officers. He was sharp enough to know that they couldn't compel him to leave town and it is needless to say that he stayed right here and didn't even think of leaving.

It seems that he at one time was in the employ of J. S. Roshon & Co., of Harrisburg, and while working for them sold quite a number of pictures. He claimed he was waiting in Bellefonte to recover some money which the firm owed him for work he had done before he was discharged. He had been in Bellefonte for almost seven weeks and he had a knack of getting acquainted possessed by but a few. Almost everybody in town knew him either by sight or by a one-sided introduction. He was a hustler and seemed to be alwas busy at something or other, no matter how hard the times might be. If he wasn't working he was in trouble, so that he always had something to occupy his mind.

Several weeks ago a patent medicine firm struck town and opened up a store room in the McClain Building. It took but a few hours for the world renowned "Roscoe" to put in his appearance, worm himself into their good graces, convince them that he could sell more patent medicine than any other man living and in fact put new life into the business all around. He was soon put on the pay roll of the medicine company and started out to herald their medicine all over the world. In some way or other, after having worked for the medicine men for a week or so, "Roscoe" ended up in debt to them. He had hired several rigs and the medicine people had to pay for them. So "Roscoe" was taken along to Tyrone to work out what he owed them.

On Thursday he got a rig of ——, a Tyrone liveryman, and started out to do some business The owner of the rig met him along the road the same day and "Roscoe" told him he would be back to Tyrone that same evening. Instead of doing so he came on to Bellefonte. Had he known what was is store for him he would have stayed miles away. No sooner had he struck town than Officer Garis tapped him on the shoulder and informed him that he was his prisoner on a warrant sent out from Harrisburg. But this didn't worry "Roscoe" in the least. The horse and buggy were taken to McCulley's livery and "Roscoe" was started on his second trip to Fort Condo.

On Friday W. L. Windsor, Jr., City Detective of Harrisburg, came to Bellefonte and took charge of his prisoner.

A REPUBLICAN reporter, in an interview with Detective Windsor on the train, was told that "Roscoe" was wanted for collecting money that did not belong to him. "Roscoe" himself was sitting in the car and emphatically declared that he was "as innocent as this very car," as he termed it. When asked whether he had anything else to say, he replied: "The firm is just hot because I went around and had the orders returned, as I was no longer in the employ of Roshon & Co. I did a lot of work for them and then they discharged me and tried to beat me out of the salary due me."

"Roscoe" claims they owe him about $6. He further claims that he had not collected a cent of money. This is, however, untrue, as he collected $1.00 from Frank Wallace of Milesburg, on Thursday, on some pictures which Wallace had bought.

If there are any others who have paid money to Otto Gumper, or "Roscoe" as he is called, they will confer a favor upon us if they will send us their names and the amount paid.

The Biggest Fool at Large

Is the individual who persistently neglects his health, and the means of preserving and restoring it. Many persons who are not constitutional idiots do this. They are genuine objects of compassion as well as censure. A failure of appetite, loss of sleep and flesh, impaired digestion, an uncertain state of the bowels and symptons of biliousness are so many warnings of the approach of disease

To disregard them is abject folly, which offended nature in due time punishes severly, if not fatally. That genial and thoroughly reliable preventive of bodily mischief in the shape of chronic disease, Hostetter's Stomach Bitters, will, if resorted to in time, avert these disorders, to the removal of which it is also fully adequate. Among these are chronic indigestion, liver complaint, kidney troubles, constipation, nervousness, rheumatism and malaria

Make Your Life Happy

Some one gives these directions fo making home happy: "Take time. I is no use to fume or fret, or do as the angry housekeeper who has got hold of the wrong key and dushes, shakes and rattle it about the lock until both are broken, and the door is still unlocked. The chief secret of comfort lies in not suffering trifles to vex us, and in cultivating our undergrowth of small pleasures. Try to regard present vexations as you will regard them a month hence. Since we cannot get what we like, let us like what we can get. It is not riches, it is not poverty, it is human nature that is the trouble. The world is like a looking glass. Laugh at it and it laughs back; frown at it and it frowns back. Angry thoughts canker the mind and dispose it to the worst tempe in the world."

Re-Apportioning the County

A meeting of the Democratic county convention was held in the Arbitration room at the Court House this morning. The object of the meeting was to re-apportion the county into eight delegate district for the purpose of electing congressional conferees to meet those of the counties in the twenty eighth district to nominate a candidate for congress.

Under the rules of the party one delegate is allowed for every 500 voters and the county will have eight delegates. The Democratic county primaries will be held on June 6th and the convention on June 9th.

Terrible

is daily the cause of death on every side, not from inability to get food, but from the impossibility, caused by disease to assimilate it. Everyone has marked the continual losing of flesh and daily wasting away of some beloved friend. Call the disease what name you will, the fact remains that the ultimate end has been due to starvation. Don't wait too long, give the sufferer

Bovinine

It is not a medicine, but a food product, a powerful concentration into small bulk of the vital elements of lean beef, every bit of the nutritive qualities of which have been retained, on account of the special cold process by which it is prepared. It creates new red blood corpuscles, increases weight, builds flesh and nerve tissue, and strengthening the life-maintaining organs of the body, enables them to perform their functions naturally and throw off disease—ask your doctor, he will tell you this is so.

Demorest's is published for $2 a year, by the Demorest Publishing Co., 110 Fifth Avenue, New York.

Business is Brisk

The limestone business on the Springfield branch has assumed such colossal proportions that greater facilities are the order of the day to meet this demand for the good stone found. A. G. Morris & Co. are very busy erecting another stone crusher at their extensive plant on the above branch and in addition to this they are soon to commence the erection of ten dwelling houses for their employes at the works also.—Tyrone Times

Commander McCurley Dead.

Philadelphia, May 3.—Commander Felix McCurley, United States navy, captain of the League Island navy yard, died at the station this morning of heart failure. Commander McCurley was born in Baltimore in 1835 and early in life entered the merchant marine service. When the war broke out he entered the United States navy as acting master. He served throughout the war with great galantry and was under fire more than forty times. At the conclusion of the war Commander McCurley was commissioned as master and entered the navy with that rank. Since the war he was attched to various squadrons in different parts of the world.

A New Wrinkle In Pennsylvania Politics—It However Meets With Popular Approval and May be Initiated Elsewhere.

Erie, Pa., May 3.—At the Populist convention yesterday Mrs. Helen Johnson lecturer for the Farmers' alliance, was elected national delegate, with Mrs. Weaver and Samuel Weiss, Alternates. The following delegates to the State convention were ... Blatchley, H. H. ... R. Seares ... W. E ...

... assembled to witness the immersion of Misses Hattie and Clara Williams. The service was conducted by Rev. H. A. Grant pastor of the A. M. E. church, assisted by Rev. C. C. Miller of the Evangelical church. Brother Calvin Piper also took part in the beautiful ceremony.

—A brief preparatory service was held at the A. M. E. after which the parties proceeded to the creek directly opposite the Laundry. An appropriate hymn was sung and then Rev. Miller delivered a short prayer. Rev. Grant then waded out into the water and soon had found a suitable place. Brother Piper assisted the ladies out into the creek to where their pastor was waiting. All this time those on the banks were singing hymns until a signal from Rev. Grant told them that everything was ready. The singing stopped and not a sound could be heard. The scene was beautiful but impressive in every detail. With the usual prelude the ladies were immersed and the singing on the banks immediately commenced again. Heavy blankets were quickly placed around the ladies to protect them from catching cold and the service was over.

There is fun in the foam, and health in the cup of HIRES Rootbeer—the great temperance drink.

—Don't forget the Cycle show on Friday evening at the Armory.

—Hot drinks are out of date just now. Ice cream soda seems to be in the lead.

—This is the day of the District convention of the Epworth League and consequently the town is full of Leaguers.

—Robinson and Franklin Bros. big circus will be in Bellefonte on Wednesday May 27. The first bill car will arrive here on Wednesday May 13th.

—The tramps do not seem to be very much worried over the new ordinance judging from the number that infested our city this morning.

—Keep in mind the base ball game at Hunter's Park on Saturday afternoon between the High School and Academy teams Get up a crowd and have a special train.

—The conductors will be taken off some of the Trolley cars in Lock Haven. Business can't be very brisk just now.

There is considerable work for the Improvement Society to do this summer on the streets of this city. As they are now as far as cleanliness is concerned they are not much of a credit to the town.

—Isaac Garber, a vender of stove supplies, struck Bellefonte, on Wednesday, in queer conveyance. He has a small low wagon pulled by a little gray donkey. He is from Bridgeport, Cumberland county, and has been on the road since April 1st.

—Gotlieb Haag is putting down a good pavement in front of his residence on Bishop street. The pavement is made of Ohio Flagstone and is bordered by a substantial sandstone curbing. The work is being done by James McDermott.

—The fourth annual convention of the Grand Commandery of Pennsylvania, Ancient and Illustrious Order Knights of Malta, is now in session at Altoona and will continue over Thursday.

—The Magnet this week has a picture of a girl in bloomers riding a wheel. Newty says he's going to wear bloomers too-that is after the rest of the girls get started. Just imagine that shape in bloomers. Ugh! Horrors! that will be entirely too thin all around.

—During a fire in Williamsport on Saturday morning, Mrs. W. B. Rockey narrowly escaped death from suffocation. She is an invalid and only after the greatest difficulty was she carried from the buiding, which was damaged to the extent of $500 by the flames and water.

—A large crowd is expected at the grand cycle show and dance to be given at the Armory on Friday evening by the Bellefonte Wheelmen's Club. The Keystone Orchestra will furnish the music. A good time is guaranteed to everybody. Not a moment of your time will lag on your hands. The cycle show commences at 7 o'clock and the dancing at 9. Don't miss it.

—The Bellefonte High School Base Ball Club held a lawn festival at the Stone School House Tuesday evening, which was a complete success. The lawn was brilliantly illuminated with Chinese lanterns which gave the grounds a very inviting appearance.

—The Academy and High School Base Ball clubs will play their first game of the season at Hunter's Park on Saturday afternoon, May 9. If a sufficiently large crowd can be secured a special train will leave the P. R. R. station at 1.30, returning immediately after the game. The boys are practicing hard and a close game can be looked for. The sporting people of Bellefonte should turn out in force and encourage the boys in this the first game of the season.

—Superintendent Samuel Rine with a force of ten men are at present busily engaged in laying 800 feet of six inch water pipe on Bishop street. It will take about a week to finish the job and then the people of that end of town will be plentifully supplied with clear spring water. During the days that the pipes are taken out Supt. Rine will lay a temporary pipe along the road so no one will be compelled to do without water. This is a splendid idea and Supt. Rine deserves much credit for being so thoughtful.

—A pleasant and very enthusiastic meeting was held in the W. C. T. U. rooms last evening Miss Luella Crawford State Organiser of Y. work completely captured her audience and as a result A. The new Society will hold its first meeting on Monday evening next at 7.30 o'clock in the W. C. T. U. rooms Criders Exchange. A full attendance is very desirable. And all who are thinking of joining will be welcome at the meeting. Although from its name one might infer it is entirely for young women. The names of 13 gentlemen were enrolled as honorary members. The young ladies extend a cordial invitation to others to join their ranks.

C. L. GRAMLEY ELECTED.

Prof L. F. wolf of Centre Hall Gracefully Withdraws.

The School Directors of Centre county met at the Court House today for the purpose of electing a County Superintendent of Public Schools for three successive years. The attendance of directors numbered 122 out of 189.

At precisely 12 o'clock the directors assembled in the Court House and were ready for business. Prof. C. L. Gramley called the convention to order and then D. F. Fortney put up for chairman, George Taylor of Boggs township, a man who has been a school director for 24 years. There was no opposition to Mr. Taylor and he was unanimously chosen. Upon motion of Charles Smith of Bellefonte, P. J. McDonnell of Fleming and J. A. Reesman of Centre Hall were made secretaries, and John D. Brown of Snow Shoe reading clerk.

The roll was called and 122 directors answered to their names.

The next business of the convention was the election of a County Superintendent. Nominations being in order, J. C. P. Jones of Milesburg rose and in a well worded address named C. L. Gramley as the person entitled to the honor. John T. Lee of Centre Hall advanced the name of Prof. E. J. Wolf of Centre Hall. Just as a vote was about to be taken the name of Prof. Wolf was withdrawn, and the vote being taken, resulted in the unanimous election of the present incumbent, Prof. C. L. Gramley. There was not one dissenting vote and when the result was announced it was greeted with applause.

Upon urgent calls Mr. Gramley appeared and thanked the directors for again conferring this honor upon him. He dwelt some time on new ideas for the further advancement of the public schools. Prof. Gramley's address was punctuated by prolonged applause as he urged the directors to visit the schools and take more interest in the welfare of the children.

By a vote of 55 to 48 it was decided to increase the salary of County superintendant from $1,500 to $1,800 per year.

Attention, Comrades.

The near approach of Memorial Day and also of the department encampment June 3 and 4 demand our immediate attention. Every member of Greeg Post is requested to be present at our next meeting, Saturday May 9th 1896 as we wish to know how many to secure homes for in Chambersburg. It is the expectation that this will be the largest encampment ever held. The regular fare one way, $5.42 will be the cost of of the round trip from Bellefonte by the way of Lewisburg and Montandon return direct. To return by way of Gettysburg tickets will cost $6.12. If a sufficient number can be secured we can get a special car and go through without a change. All members of the G.A.R are requested to correspond at once either personally or through their Posts so that there will be time to make the arrangements. The cost of the round trip from other station will be the regular fare one way for the round trip.

A Business Change.

Jesse Underwood, the hustling Western Union messenger boy, purchased the Bush House news stand on Tuesday evening from Roy Bossner. Jesse has resigned his position at the telegraph office and will devote his entire time to his new business. The new proprietor of the news stand is a young man full of push and energy and we hope his new venture will prove a success in every way.

Christian Endeavor Sociable.

The Christian Endeavor Society will hold a sociable in the Presbyterian chapel, on Thursday evening May 14 at 8 o'clock. It will be given as a reception by the young people to the older members of the church. Refreshments will be served free. The admission will be free and a general good time is promised. All are cordially invited to attend.

Testing the New Nozzle.

On Monday evening the Logan Steam Fire company took their steamer out along Spring Creek to test the new ball nozzle recently provided them by the Council. Two sections of hose could not stand the pressure and busted. The nozzle, however did all that was claimed for it and proved a success in every way.

THE GIPSY CARNIVAL

Large Crowds Were on the Ground Attracted by Curiosity.

For several days bands of gypsies have been gathering near Bellefonte. They have with them many wagons, horses & etc and everybody wondered why so many were coming here at one time. The reason however, was soon found and it makes an interesting story.

A REPUBLICAN Reporter was driven to the camps near Milesburg on Monday by Mr. A. S. Garman whose kindness is duly appreciated. Mr. Galer Morrison and Francis Speer of the Gazette were also along and barring one or two incidents the trip was a delightful one. When we drove into the camp we were greeted with a "howdy-do gents!" "Don't you want to swap!" The NEWS Reporter got out of the buggy and soon was boring the life out of several of the [illegible] with his questions. The [illegible] fully given [illegible] that it [illegible] mo[illegible]

[illegible] some[illegible] Some of [illegible] are graceful dancers and quite a little money is taken in in this way.

There was some dissapointment because several bands failed to reach here in time for the big meeting. There are in the camp 54 wagons about 127 horses and about 70 people. In the bands that failed to arrive here but which however will join the camp at Philipsburg, there are about 40 people 27 wagons and 47 horses.

The camp will break up in a day or so and go to Snow Shoe and then to Philipsburg. An interesting point in regard to the Chief Peter Guy is that he was raised in this neighborhood and seems rather well acquainted with the surroundings.

To Decorate the Graves.

The school children are earnestly requested to bring flowers to the Post Rooms on the morning of Saturday, May 30th—Decotation day. These flowers are wanted for the purpose of decorating the graves of the dead soldiers and it is to be hoped there will be a generous response. The children are requested to bring their flowers to the Post Rooms early in the morning, if possible, before 9 o'clock.

Decoration Day will be appropriately observed. There will be a parade of the different military organizations of the city and addresses at the cemetery.

Minstrels at Lamar.

A troupe of boys styling themselves the Bellefonte Ministrels drove to Lamar on Tuesday afternoon and before an audience of 10,000 people gave the grandest ministrel show ever produced on an American stage. Their jokes were extremely funny and the people fairly went wild with convulsions of laughter. The singing was exceptionally fine and the boys made quite a favorable impression, in fact some of them have signed with the church choir of that place.

The trip was a success financially and the boys returned home apparently well satisfied with the venture.

WHEELMEN'S BIG PARADE.

Over Fifty Decorated Wheels in the Procession on Tuesday Evening.

The Bicycle parade on Tuesday evening, given by the members of the Bellefonte Wheelmen's club, was a grand success in every particular. There were about fifty beautifully decorated wheels in the parade and barring one or two incidents the affair was all that could be wished for.

The evening was an ideal one for just such an occasion. True, it was rather dusty, but that was overlooked altogether in the excitement. The parade was scheduled to start at 8.30 o'clock but long before that hour the streets were crowded with people who were all anxiety-couldn't wait, as it were.

Promptly at the appointed hour, the bugle sounded out that all was ready and the procession started. Every wheel was decorated with Chinese lanterns, flags, bunting, etc., and they made a very pretty [illegible] indeed. The principal streets of the [illegible] were gone over before the procession [illegible]. Afterwards about twenty rode [illegible] and gave a parade in that [illegible] the Milesburg band.

[illegible] Sheffer will take up [illegible] in Bellefonte after a [illegible]on. We extend our [illegible]ulations to the newly [illegible] and wish them much [illegible]ness in their journey [illegible] Mr. Sheffer is a young [illegible]y and is one of Belle- [illegible]enterprising merchants. [illegible] is a pretty Southern [illegible]ted our city last year. [illegible]ng woman well fitted to [illegible]any household and will [illegible] and loving wife.

[illegible]eath at Julian.

[illegible]ned to note the death of Mrs. [illegible]erson who died at her late [illegible]an at 2 o'clock this morning. [illegible] is well known in the com- [illegible]hich she lived and her demise [illegible]enly felt. Her friends were [illegible] by the score and she was loved [illegible] one and all. A loving dispo- [illegible]de her everybody's friend and [illegible]as there one who went to her but [illegible]ceived a mother's advice. Her [illegible] will cause a vacancy that will almost be impossible to fill. There is consolation in knowing, however, that it is only to a better and purer world that she has been called and that a grand reward awaits such as she.

The deceased was aged 60 years, 5 months and 1 day. The funeral services will be held in the M. E. church at Julian at 10 30 o'clock on Friday morning May 8. Interment will be made in Gray's Cemetry at Half Moon. We extend to the husband our heart felt sympathy in this his hour of sorrow.

Remember This.

Keep in mind the Cycle show and dance to be given by the Bellefonte Wheelmen at the Armory on Friday evening, May 8th. The Cycle show commences at 7 o'clock and continues until 9. Dancing will be then in order and a grand time is assured to all who may attend. The Keystone orchestra will furnish the music and this alone should be sufficient to draw a big crowd. The subscription price is only 50 cents. Are you going?

Another Boy.

It is said that there is nothing that causes more joy to a household than the birth of an heir. If this be true then there is unbounded joy in the home of Mrs. A. W. Stine on Thomas street. A ten pound boy put in his appearance there early Sunday morning and Mr. Stine's face was wreathed in smiles all day. Congratulations are now in order so we take this opportunity to extend our's and hearty one at that.

Patrick Gherity, Jr.

On Saturday evening the home of Mr. and Mrs. Patrick Gherity was brightened by the arrival of a great big bouncing boy. The young Mr. Gherity is a perfect picture of his brother and is consequently very handsome. It is needless to state that they are going to keep the new boss of the household. Congratulations.

A Marvelous Change.

"What a change," says the novelist, "one little woman can make in a man's life." "Yes," replies the victim, "and what a lot of change she requires while doing it." But what women are most interested in is the change they can make in their own lives by the use of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. It changes them from poor weak and suffering creatures to beings whose lives are filled with pleasure and enjoyment. It does this by removing the many painful maladies peculiar to woman, such as "dragging-down" pains, sensations of nausea, backache and the long train of ills from which the sex suffers. To those about to become mothers it is a boon, for it lessens the pains and perils of childbirth, shortens labors, promotes the secretion of an abundance of nourishment for the child and shortens the period of confinement.

STATE WINS.

Colgate University Receives Rather Demoralizing Treatment in Baseball.

The State College Base Ball club had a walk-over with the Colgate University nine on Beaver field on Tuesday afternoon. The visitors were defeated by the score of 16 to 7. The brilliant work of Nesbit and Hayes had much to do in pulling out an easy victory after the sixth inning. The game was charterized by the terrific bating of the State team. Curtin put up a magnificent game as did also Walker Bechtel and Brandt for state and Sheldon Carpenter for Colgate.

After meals you should have simply a feeling of comfort and satisfaction. You should not feel any special indication that digestion is going. If you do you have indigestion, which means not digestion. This may be the beginning of so many dangerous diseases, that it is best to take it in hand at once and treat it with Shakers Digestive Cordial. For you know that indigestion makes poison, which causes pain and sickness. And that Shaker Digestive Cordial helps digestion and cures indigestion Shaker's Digestive Cordial does this by providing the digestive material in which the sick stomach is wanting. It also tones up and strengthens the digestive organs and makes them perfectly healthy. This is the rationale of its method of cure, as the doctor would say. Sold by druggists, price 10 cents to $1.00 per bottle.

The Great Cycle Show.

The cycle show of the Bellefonte Wheelmen promises to be a very fine affair. It is to be held in the new Armory, on Friday night, beginning promptly at 7 o'clock. The following is the program:

7 o'clock, Cycle Show begins,
8 o'clock, Concert by Orchestra.
9.30 o'clock, Dancing begins.

Refreshments served by Ceader's all evening in Armory. All the principal makes of cycles, sundries, and cycle clothing will be exhibited. Tickets, gentlemen 50 cents, ladies free.

Celebrated Autoharpast.

The celebrated Autoharpist and representative of the firm of Alfred Dodge and son was in town yesterday visiting the musical trade.

During his stay here Prof. H. E. Hibsh manipulated his autoharp for many of our friends in town, and it was marvelous to see how rapidly and with what correctness his fingers flew across the strings. Prof. Hibsman's rendition of "Home, Sweet Home" with variations was most effective for throughout the entire melody the expression which he played seemed to carry the good old sentiment usually expressed with the melody with his rendition of the piece.

Died this Morning.

After an extended illness, Alexander McCafferty, aged 72 years, died at his late residence on East Lamb street this morning. The deceased was a stone mason by trade and was widely known for his skill in his profession. For years he had made Bellefonte his home and his acquaintances were numbered by the hundred. Two daughters are left to mourn the death of a good father. They are Misses Bessie and Julia, The funeral will be held on Saturday morning at 9.30 o'clock.

Resigned her Position.

At a recent meeting of the Village Improvement Society, the president Mrs. A. O. Furst resigned. Her successor has as yet not been selected but will probably be Mrs. L. A. Shaffer of Curtin street. A meeting of the society will be held on Friday afternoon at 4 o'clock at the Y. M. C. A. rooms.
